1. National and provincial government organs now in Canton plan to move about 10 June 1949.
2. The provincial government offices will move to Hoihow, Hainan Island.
3. No firm decision has been reached as to the destination of the offices of the national government, but it appears likely that the Executive Yuan, ministries and Legislative Yuan will go to Taiwan. The current plan is to establish the Tsung Tung Fu (Presidential Office) at Kweiyang.
4. Government and provincial officials believe that Canton will be safe from Communist assault until about 15 June 1949.
